

David Curtis, competition and factory test driver, aloft on a G80CS WESTERNER (advance model) in a recent competition.

New cylinder with new, larger valves and larger combustion chamber for vastly improved performance standard equipment on both the MATCHLESS APACHE and MATCHLESS TRAILBLAZER for 1960.

A new year, a new decade, a new age of motorcycling begins in 1960 with the unbeatable combination of Matchless and Indian! Associated Motor Cycles Ltd. of London, England, the world's largest manufacturers of quality motorcycles and The Indian Company of Springfield, Massachusetts, America's oldest and most respected name in motorcycling, bring you the greatest line of motorcycles ever produced. Twelve new models in a choice of styles, sizes and colors that give you everything you want in a motorcycle! Only the Matchless / Indian line offers all the power, thrills, excitement and just plain fun that add up to the best motorcycles ever built! Visit your Matchless / Indian dealer today and look over this thrilling new line! Take a free demonstration ride on your favorite and see for yourself!