

The
MODEL 31
650 c.c. O.H.V. Twin

- “The twin was willing to go as fast as the rider’s toleration of wind pressure permitted”
- “70 m.p.h. cruising was easy stuff”
- “The speedometer was repeatedly indicating 90 m.p.h. with the rider normally seated”
- “I saw the needle on the 97 m.p.h. mark before I had to roll it off”
- “No oil leaks appeared at the engine”
- “Torrential rain was unable to drown the sparks”
- “The gearbox is one of the best in the world”
- “The clutch was excellent”
- “The stoppers . . . I would wish them to be no different if the machine were my own”
- “I was particularly intrigued by the 650 c.c. A.J.S.”

From: “Motor Cycling” April 16th 1959

