MATCHLESS/PINTO

A potent, fully sprung, 150 c.c. lightweight with the feel and ride of a much larger model. Perfect for the new rider or as daily transportation for experienced veterans.

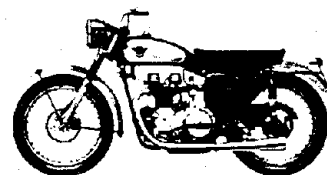

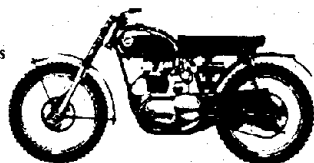

MATCHLESS/PATHFINDER

The performance of a heavyweight with the economy of a lightweight. The best and most handsome road 250 c.c. produced.

MATCHLESS/ARROW

Ready for competition with an entirely new ignition system. Larger crankpin and strengthened gearbox plus increased power, the 250 c.c. Arrow guarantees a brilliant competition season. Complete with quickly detachable lights, air cleaner, muffler, etc.

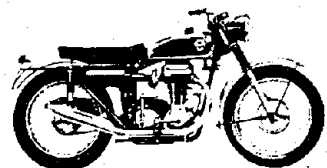

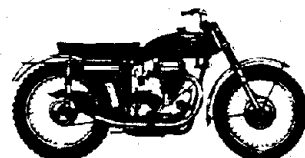

MATCHLESS/APACHE

After sweeping successes in 1960, the Apache is back again more rugged and dependable than ever. In two fully equipped models — the G12-CS for cross country competition and the G12-CSR as an unbeatable road machine.

MATCHLESS/TYPHOON

A faster, better steering and more rugged 600 c.c. single cylinder model. Perfect for scrambles or cross country racing. The Typhoon and all 1961 singles are fitted with redesigned high output oil pumps. Fully equipped.

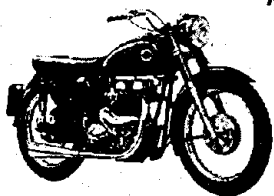

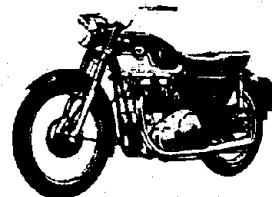

MATCHLESS/WESTERNER

The most thrilling 500 c.c. competition model ever built. Ideal for competition on or off the road. Fully equipped for the road with detachable lights, air cleaner, etc. Large bore Grand Prix carburetor and highest compression piston optional extra.

MATCHLESS/TRAILBLAZER

Destined to be the fastest and safest high performance, fully equipped road model on the road. Hairline steering, unsurpassed braking, terrific acceleration . . . capable of from 10 to 100 MPH in top gear.

MATCHLESS/TOMAHAWK

Justifiably famous for tractability, silence, economy and quick starting. Capable of holding top or average speed without effort.

The winning team of Matchless/Indian has scored another outstanding victory for you! Their new quality line of motorcycles for 1961 has the best, the most rugged, dependable and downright thrilling machines ever built. Whether you are interested in racing, sports riding or a reliable and comfortable road machine, see your Matchless/Indian dealer and take a free demonstration ride on your favorite.
