A. J. S. CHORUS.

Under an A.J.S. from morning until night,
Under an A.J.S. and by gow, its a champion
Under an A.J.S. so I don't care a jot,
For my A.J.S. - being A.J.S., it is beating the blooming lot

THE SONG OF THE A.J.S.

The Song of the A.J.S. now I will sing,
The best Bike to Hampton the Trophy to bring,
Of "two-strokes" and "Multies" I've heard quite a lot,
But the little A.J.S. is right on the top
- Ritooral, Ritooral, Ritooral, I say!
I'll ride my A.J.S. by night and by day,
And to each one I pass on the road I will say,
- Ritooral, Ritooral, Ritooral, I say!

I went to the "island" to see the great race,
And to see our brave lads set all others the pace,
They started like lightning and finished that way,
I'd give fifty quid for another such day
- Ritooral, Ritooral, Ritooral, I say!
But for "Billy's" bad luck we'd be able to say,
That we'd live out of six of the first in the fray,
- Ritooral, Ritooral, Ritooral, I say!

There's Harry, and George, and there's Jay - and there's Joe,
They are the boys to make A.J.S. go,
There's Williams, and Williams, and Haddock, and Jones,
An Epore, Billy Houston who asked his way home?
- Ritooral, Ritooral, Ritooral, I say!
They all worked like Trojans to win that great day,
So we'll all join together and shout Hip Hooray!
Hip, Hip, Hip - Hip, Hip, Hip - Hip, Hip, Hip, Hooray!

Written and sung by W. E. Crane
