

DRY-SUMP LUBRICATION (A.J.S.).

Showing the layout of oil pipes. The needle-valve adjustment to cylinder wall should be turned off except at high speeds. This is because the piston is sufficiently lubricated at average speeds by oil thrown from the big end.